With the introduction of the Internet into our daily lives, we have changed from a society of eight to towers (that works from 8 am to 2 pm) into a twenty four—hour society. Everything in this lifestyle is open all hours. You can buy your grocery at midnight, book your holiday on the Internet at Sam and do business online at dawn.

Before you join the 24-hour revolution, take a minute to listen to what your body is trying to tell you. This "round the clock "lifestyle is not what the Great Creator intended for us.

In an area of our brains, we have a "body clock "that controls our body's natural rhythms. It tells us when it is the right time to eat, sleep, work or play. It plays an important part in our physical and psychological well-being. It is, in fact, what makes us control many things including our hormones, temperatures, immune system and activity. It regulates the tempo and brings in all the different instruments on time to make music rather than noise. If we try to ignore our body clocks, or even to switch them off for a while, we not only deprive ourselves of much needed rest, but we also run the risk of seriously damaging our health. Accordingly, we need to have a daily routine.
